Initial Term:	MAY 31, 2016 - MAY 31, 2018
Rent is $1030 PER MONTH, PAYABLE ON THE FIRST DAY OF EACH MONTH.

1. Pay rent to: RYAN STASSINIS who is the owner, hereinafter referred to as Landlord. 4081 TURNBEARY DRIVE, MEDINA OHIO 44256

2. Term: The term of this Lease shall begin 6/31/2016 (the "Commencement date"). The initial term of this Lease shall end on 6/31/2018. The Lease will automatically renew for successive one year terms unless (a) Tenant is in default of any provision under the Lease or (b) either party provides at least 30 days written notice prior to the end of the then current one year lease term that the Lease is not being renewed. Any renewal shall be upon such terms and conditions (including, but not limited to, monthly rental amount) that Landlord determines in its sole discretion. A releasing fee of $2000.00 will apply along with monthly rent due until a suitable tenant can be found if tenant wishes to terminate lease agreement early.

3. Late charges: If rent is not received by the first day of each month, the tenant shall pay a late charge of 10% of monthly rent plus $5.00 per day for each day the rent is late. Rent received more than 4 days after due date will be returned to tenant via hand delivery or certified mail. A letter stating rent is late with description of late charges will be included in letter. Tenant must return rent check with additional late charges due within 24 hours of receipt of letter. If you pay by check and your check is returned unpaid for any reason, you will be charged $35.00 in addition to the late charge. Your rent payment is critical! No excuses will be accepted, including ill health, accident, loss of job, financial problems, family emergencies, etc. Failure to pay rent on time may result in termination of this rental agreement and eviction. Landlord may report unpaid rent, late fees, damages, and other charges to a Credit Bureau for recordation in Tenant's credit file. A releasing fee of $2000.00 shall apply along with monthly rent due until a suitable tenant can be found if tenant is evicted from the property.

4. Security deposit: In addition to the first month's rent, the Tenant agrees to deposit with the Landlord the sum of $1030 as a Security Deposit. Said deposit will not be applied for any month's rent during Tenant's occupancy but shall be held by the Landlord as a guarantee for the performance of the terms of this agreement until date of vacating. Tenants holding over past the first of the month will be responsible for the full month's rent. The Landlord shall keep that portion of the security deposit for damage on the premises caused by the Tenant or Tenant's invitees. Any unpaid rent or late fees shall also be deducted from the security deposit. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of money owed not covered by the security deposit.

At the time of vacating the premises the Tenant agrees to surrender the premises in as good condition as it is now. Tenant will be considered as having vacated the premises when all keys are returned to the Landlord. Landlord will mail a security deposit settlement statement and all monies due to the Tenant within a 40-day period. Return or forfeiture of the security deposit is subject to the following terms:

- a. A written notice must be given to the Landlord a full calendar month prior to vacating the premises. The notice must include a forwarding address.
- b. Entire premises, including windows, doors, kitchen and bathroom fixtures, closets, cabinets, floors, walls, woodwork, and appliances must be clean, carpeted areas must be cleaned.
- c. Tenants must not leave stickers, tape, nails, screws, fasteners of any kind, scratches, holes, or indentations in the walls, woodwork, or flooring.
- d. Carpets must be clean, stain free, and odor free.
- e. All debris, rubbish and discards must be removed from the premises. Tenant will be charged for the removal of any items left behind.

5. Renewal or termination of Rental Agreement: This rental agreement shall continue to automatically renew for an additional one year lease term providing Tenant or Landlord have not terminated in writing this rental agreement at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the prior lease term. For each year renewed, the rent amount shall increase by $25.00 per month. In the event Tenant elects not to renew for an additional year, Tenant may extend this rental agreement on a month-to-month basis with an increase in the rent amount of $50.00 per month. A full calendar month's written notice prior to vacating must be given to the Landlord.

The Landlord shall be permitted, at reasonable times, to make alterations, repairs and improvements to the premises to make it more sellable or rentable. The Tenant shall cooperate in allowing showings to new prospective buyers or tenants and shall not remove or obstruct the view of any "For Sale" or "For Rent" or "Rent To Own" signs that the Landlord may place on the premises. The month prior to the stated lease end date, two days will be used (one during the week and one during the week-end) to show the property, approved animals must be contained and the house tidy and free of debris for scheduled showings.

6. Utilities. Tenant shall make arrangements at their expense for all utilities including gas, electric, sewer, water, and trash service and shall pay for all utilities in addition to the rent, until the termination of this Rental Agreement. Tenant shall be responsible for any damage caused by failing to keep the premises adequately heated. Tenant is responsible for replacing the furnace filter twice a year to save on heating costs by allowing the furnace to operate cleaner and more efficiently.

7. Additional occupants: The house will be used only as living quarters by the two tenants, _____, who have signed this Rental Agreement. Fifty ($50.00) Dollars additional rent will be due each month for any other person, except immediate family, occupying the premises for a period longer than fourteen (14) days. Written permission must be obtained from Landlord in advance for any additional occupant.

8. Renter's Insurance: Tenant is advised to obtain "renter's insurance" for tenant and occupant's personal belongings, as they are not covered by the Landlord's insurance. The Landlord shall not be liable for any loss or damage of the Tenant or occupants caused by fire, theft, burglary, electrical failure, heating failure, water, snow, ice, windstorm, backed up drains, overflowing hot water tank, toilet, sink, shower, bath tub, etc. The Landlord shall not be liable for damage caused by failure to keep premises in repair. The Tenant agrees to report any hazardous conditions to the Landlord in writing as soon as they are discovered to enable them to be remedied.

9. Inspection/inventory record: Tenant agrees to inspect the smoke detector(s), door locks and latches to determine if they are adequate and in good working order. Tenant shall inspect the premises for any defects and provide prompt written notice to Landlord if any item needs repair or replacement. The Tenant accepts the house as being in good/safe condition unless a written exception is delivered to the Landlord within seven (7) days after the Tenant receives the house keys. The absence of such notice shall indicate there were no defects in the house, appliances, or unsafe conditions existing as of the start of the tenancy. An inspection and inventory record has been provided for the purpose of documenting any defects. Tenants are encouraged to report any defect, no matter how slight. This will establish the initial condition according to the Tenant as well as the condition in which a prior tenant left the premises. The Landlord will not repair any cosmetic or non-functional items such as chipped sinks, etc., nor do any painting. However, by adding these items to the inspection report, the Tenant will have provided documentation as to the condition of the property upon move-in. The Landlord agrees as a part of the rental agreement to have all reported functional defects repaired. This includes light switches, wall plugs, faucets, drains, sewage systems, plumbing, fixtures, doors, etc.

10. Maintenance: Once the inspection report has been received, repairs as needed will be scheduled as soon as possible. "Plugged up" sinks, bathtubs, showers, duct cleaning, and/or toilets, are the responsibility of the Tenant. If the premises has a dishwasher, clothes washer, dryer, garbage disposal, stove, refrigerator, or window air conditioner, the Tenant is responsible to keep them in working condition. Tenant is responsible for maintaining the lawn and shrubbery (including and not limited to weeding and hedging), and snow removal. In the event Tenant does not maintain the lawn and shrubbery, Landlord may do so and charge Tenant. The Tenant promises no tacks or nails or screws will be placed into the woodwork or walls nor any painting done unless the premises can be returned to the original condition as of the date of this tenancy. Tenant will pay for damage caused by wind, rain, or water resulting from: leaving windows or doors open, overflow of appliances, sinks, bathtubs, showers, toilets, waterbeds, or from neglect.

11.. Basement storage: If the subject property contains a basement, Landlord does not warrant basement to be dry. Should Tenant choose to store items in the basement, Tenant is advised to keep items off the floor and store items on shelves, tables, or blocks to help prevent damage from water leakage. Landlord shall not be liable for damage to Tenant's belongings caused by a wet basement, broken water lines, plugged/backed-up drains, etc.

12.. Pets: Pets allowed with the permission of the landlord. A security deposit will be applied. Failure to abide by this clause shall be considered just cause for termination of this Rental Agreement and loss of the Security Deposit.

13. Locks: Tenant is prohibited from adding locks to, changing, or in any way altering the locks installed on the doors. All keys must be returned to Landlord upon termination of occupancy. Furthermore, the Tenant shall be responsible for any lookouts including, and not limited to garage doors and any exterior shed/building that is used by the Tenant. Landlord will not admit Tenant after 9:00 p.m., the tenant will be responsible for hiring the services of a locksmith if the landlord is unavailable, or, for any lookout assistance after 9:00 p.m. A charge of $45.00 plus materials will be paid to Landlord by Tenant if Landlord must travel to premises to admit Tenant.

14.. Disturbance: The premises are to be used as a private residence only. Criminal activity or disturbance to neighbors shall be cause for eviction. Failure to abide by this clause shall be considered just cause for termination of this Rental Agreement and loss of the Security Deposit.

CONSUMER GUIDE TO AGENCY RELATIONSHIPS

We are pleased you have selected Realty Trust Services to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying or leasing real estate, Realty Trust Services can provide you with expertise and assistance. Because this may be the largest financial transaction you will enter into, it is important to understand the role of the agents and brokers with whom you are working. Below is some information that explains the various services that agents can offer and their options for working with you:

Representing the Sellers

Most sellers of real estate choose to list their home for sale with a real estate brokerage. When they do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and the listing agent to represent their interests. As the seller's agent, the brokerage and listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care, and account for any money they handle in the transaction. In rare circumstances, a listing broker may offer "subagency" to other brokerages, which would also represent the seller's interests and owe the seller these same duties.

Representing Buyers

When purchasing real estate, buyers usually choose to work with a real estate agent as well. Often the buyers want to be represented in the transaction. This is referred to as buyer's agency. A brokerage and agent that agree to represent a buyer's interest in a transaction must: follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information, and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

Dual Agency

Occasionally, the same agent and brokerage that represent the seller also represent the buyer. This is referred to as dual agency. When a brokerage and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position between the buyer and the seller. They may not advocate the position of one client over the best interests of the other client, or disclose any personal or confidential information to the other party without written consent.

Representing Both the Buyer & Seller

On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from the same brokerage. In this case, the agents may each represent the best interest of their respective clients. Or, depending on company policy, the agents may both act as dual agents and remain neutral in the transaction. When either of the above occurs, the brokerage will be considered a dual agent. As a dual agent, the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate for the position of one client over another. The brokerage will also protect the confidentiality of all parties.

For more information on agency law in Ohio, contact the Ohio Division of Real Estate & Professional Licensing at (614) 466-4100, or online at www.com.ohio.gov/real.

Working With Realty Trust Services

Realty Trust Services does offer representation to both buyers and sellers. Therefore, the potential exists for one agent to represent a buyer who wishes to purchase property listed with another agent in our company. If this occurs, each agent will represent their own client, but Realty Trust Services and its managers will act as a dual agent. This means the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and not take any actions that will favor one side over the other. Realty Trust Services will still supervise both agents to assure that their respective clients are being fully represented and will protect the parties' confidential information.

In the event that both the buyer and seller are represented by the same agent, the agent and Realty Trust Services will act as a dual agent but only if both parties agree. As a dual agent, they will treat both parties honestly, prepare and present offers at the direction of the parties, and help the parties fulfill the terms of any contract. They will not, however, disclose any confidential information that would place one party at an advantage over the other or advocate or negotiate to the detriment of either party.

If dual agency occurs, you will be asked to consent to that in writing. If you do not agree to your agent acting as a dual agent, you can ask that another agent in our company be assigned to represent you or you can seek representation from another brokerage.

As a buyer, you may also choose to represent yourself on properties Realty Trust Services has listed. In that instance, Realty Trust Services will represent the seller and you would represent your own best interests. Because the listing agent has a duty of full disclosure to the seller, you should not share any information with the listing agent that you would not want the seller to know.

Working With Other Brokerages

When Realty Trust Services lists property for sale, it also cooperates with, and offers compensation to, other brokerages that represent buyers. Realty Trust Services does reserve the right, in some instances, to vary the compensation it offers to other brokerages. As a seller, you should understand that just because Realty Trust Services shares a fee with a brokerage representing the buyer, it does not mean that you will be represented by that brokerage. Instead, that company will be looking out for the buyer and Realty Trust Services will be representing your interests. When acting as a buyer's agent, Realty Trust Services also accepts compensation offered by the listing broker. If the property is not listed with any broker, or the listing broker does not offer compensation, we will attempt to negotiate for a seller-paid fee.

Fair Housing Statement

It is illegal, pursuant to the Ohio Fair Housing Law, division (H) of Section 4112.02 of the Revised Code and the Federal Fair Housing Law, 42 U.S.C.A. 3601, to refuse to sell, transfer, assign, rent, lease, sublease or finance housing accommodations, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of housing accommodations, or otherwise deny or make unavailable housing accommodations because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status as defined in Section 4112.01 of the Revised Code, ancestry, military status as defined in that section, disability as defined in that section, or national origin or to so discriminate in advertising the sale or rental of housing, in the financing of housing, or in the provision of real estate brokerage services. It is also illegal, for profit, to induce or attempt to induce a person to sell or rent a dwelling by representations regarding the entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons belonging to one of the protected classes. (Effective: 3/25/08)

We hope you find this information to be helpful to you as you begin your real estate transaction. When you are ready to enter into a transaction, you will be given an Agency Disclosure Statement that specifically identifies the role of the agents and brokerages. Please ask questions if there is anything you do not understand.

Because it is important that you have this information, Ohio law requires that we ask you to sign below to acknowledge receipt of this pamphlet. Your signature will not obligate you to work with our company if you do not choose to do so.
