If such report shows existing infestation or damage by pests, termites or wood destroying insects, treatment of the condition shall be made by a licensed exterminating agency which shall furnish a certificate of guarantee for a period of at least one year in the case of termites and a certificate of guarantee for a period of at least 60 days in the case of wood destroying insects. ALL REPAIRS AND TREATMENT COSTS SHALL BE PAID BY THE DBUYER OR DISELLER (unless FHA/VA regulations prohibit payment of inspection by BUYER, in which case SELLER shall pay the cost.) This AGREEMENT may be voided by the party paying for the repair, if it exceeds $500.00.

Yes LEAD BASED PAINT BUYER shall have the right to have a risk assessment or inspection of the property by a qualified inspector, for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead based paint hazards at BUYER's expense within ten (10) days after formation of a binding AGREEMENT. (Intact lead-based paint that is in good condition is not necessarily a hazard. See EPA pamphlet "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home" for more information.) In the event existing deficiencies or corrections are identified by the inspector in their written report, BUYER shall have the right to terminate the AGREEMENT or request that the SELLER repair the specific existing deficiencies noted on the written inspection report. In that event, BUYER agrees to immediately provide the specific existing deficiencies noted on the written inspection report. In that event, BUYER agrees to immediately provide SELLER with a copy of the written inspection and/or risk assessment report. Upon receipt of the inspection report and BUYER's request of repairs, SELLER will have the option to either agree to correct the deficiencies identified in the inspector's written report or decline to do any repairs. If SELLER elects to correct the deficiencies, SELLER agrees to provide to BUYER prior to Title Transfer with a certificate from a qualified risk assessor or inspector demonstrating that the deficiencies have been remedied. If the SELLER declines to correct the deficiencies, BUYER may elect to terminate the AGREEMENT or accept the property in its "AS IS" condition. BUYER may remove this right of inspection at any time without SELLER's consent.

VCENCX KELATIONSHIPS CONSUMER GUIDE TO

We are pleased you have selected Realty Trust Services to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying or leasing real estate, Realty Trust Services can provide you with expertise and assistance. Because this may be the largest financial transaction you will enter into, it is important to understand the role of the agents and brokers with whom you are working. Below is some information that explains the various services that agents can offer and their options for working with you:

Representing the Sellers

Most sellers of real estate choose to list their home for sale with a real estate brokerage. When they do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and the listing agent, the brokerage and listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care, and account for any money they handle in the transaction. In rare circumstances, a listing broker akill and care, and account for any money they handle in the transaction. In rare circumstances, a listing broker and office "subagency" to other brokerages, which would also represent the seller's interests and owe the seller these same duties.

Representing Buyers

When purchasing real estate, buyers usually choose to work with a real estate agent as well. Often the buyers want to be represented in the transaction. This is referred to as buyer's agency. A brokerage and agent that agree to represent a buyer's interest in a transaction must: follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information, and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

Dual Agency

Occasionally, the same agent and brokerage that represent the seller also represent the buyer. This is referred to as dual agency. When a brokerage and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position between the buyer and the seller. They may not advocate the position of one client over the best interests of the other client, or disclose any personal or confidential information to the other party without written consent.

Representing Both the Buyer & Seller

On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from the same brokerage. In this case, the agents may each represent the best interest of their respective clients. Or, depending on company policy, the agents may both act as dual agents and remain neutral in the transaction. When either of the above occurs, the brokerage will be considered a dual agent. As a dual agent, the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate for the position of one client over another. The brokerage will also protect the confidentiality of all parties.

Working With Realty Trust Services
Realty Trust Services does offer representation to both buyers and sellers. Therefore, the potential exists for one agent to represent a buyer who wishes to purchase property listed with another agent in our company. If this occurs, each agent will represent their own client, but Realty Trust Services and its managers will act as a dual agent. This means the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and not take any actions that will favor one side over the other. Realty Trust Services will still supervise both agents to assure that their respective clients are being fully represented and will protect the parties' confidential information.

DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally the broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to an attorney or to:
