DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally the broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to an attorney or to:

DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally the broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to an attorney or to:

154 offender law. The Buyer acknowledges that the information disclosed may no longer be accurate and agrees to 155 inquire with the local sheriff's office. Buyer agrees to assume the responsibility to check with the local sheriff's office
156 for additional information. Buyer will rely on Buyer's own inquiry with the local sheriff's office as to registered sex
157 offenders in the area and will not rely on Seller or any real estate agent involved in the transaction to determine if a
158 sex offender resides in the area of any property Buyer may purchase.

159 CONDITION OF PROPERTY: Buyer has examined the property and agrees that the property is being purchased
160 in its "As Is" Present Physical Condition including any defects disclosed by the Seller on the Ohio Residential
161 Property Disclosure Form or identified by any inspections requested by either party or any other 162 forms or addenda made a part of this agreement. Seller agrees to notify Buyer in writing of any additional 163 disclosure items that arise between the date of acceptance and the date of recording of the deed. Buyer has not 164 relied upon any representations, warranties, or statements about the property (including but not limited to its 165 condition or use) unless otherwise disclosed on this agreement or on the Residential Property Disclosure Form.

- 166 1. Buyer acknowledges receipt of completed Residential Property Disclosure Form from Seller
167 2. Buyer has not received Residential Property Disclosure Form and Seller agrees to deliver to Buyer a copy of 168 the completed Residential Property Disclosure Form within three (3) days after acceptance unless the sale of 169 the property is exempt by Ohio Revised Code 5302.30 from the use of the form.

170 Seller shall pay all costs for the repair of any gas line leak found between the street and foundation at the time
171 of recording of title, or restoration of utilities, whichever is sooner. Seller agrees to comply with any and all local

175 will be responsible for the correction of any building code or health violation(s). If Buyer and Seller cannot agree in 176 writing, this Agreement can be declared null and void by either party. In that event Seller and Buyer agree to sign a

179 Property Disclosure Form unless otherwise stated above and Seller has not made any representations or 180 warranties, either expressed or implied, regarding the property, (except for the Ohio Residential Property
181 Disclosure Form, if applicable), and agrees to hold the Brokers and their agents harmless from any misstatements
182 or errors made by the Seller on the form. Buyer also acknowledges and agrees that the Brokers and their agents
183 have no obligation to verify or investigate the information provided by the Seller on that form. Buyer hereby 184 acknowledges that any representation by Seller or the real estate agent(s) regarding the square footage of the 185 rooms, structures or lot dimensions, homeowner's fees, public and private assessments, utility bills, taxes and
