

CONSUMER GUIDE TO AGENCY RELATIONSHIPS

We are pleased you have selected JBS Realty to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying or leasing real estate, JBS Realty can provide you with expertise and assistance. Because this may be the largest financial transaction you will enter into, it is important to understand the role of the agents and brokers with whom you are working. Below is some information that explains the various services agents can offer and their options for working with you.

For more information on agency law in Ohio you can also contact the Ohio Division of Real Estate & Professional Licensing at (614) 466-4100, or on their website www.com.state.oh.us.

REPRESENTING SELLERS

Most sellers of real estate choose to list their home for sale with a real estate brokerage. When they do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and the listing agent to represent their interests. As the seller's agent, the brokerage and listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care, and account for any money they handle in the transaction. In rare circumstances, a listing broker may offer "subagency" to other brokerages which would also represent the seller's interest and owe the seller these same duties.

REPRESENTING BUYERS

When purchasing real estate, buyers usually choose to work with a real estate agent as well. Often the buyers want to be represented in the transaction. This is referred to as buyer's agency. A brokerage and agent that agree to represent a buyer's interest in a transaction must: follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information, and account for any money they handle in the transaction.

DUAL AGENCY

Occasionally the same agent and brokerage who represents the seller also represents the buyer. This is referred to as a dual agency. When a brokerage and its agents become “dual agents,” they must maintain a neutral position in the transaction. They may not advocate the position of one client over the best interests of the other client, or disclose any confidential information to the other party without written consent.

WORKING WITH JBS Realty

JBS Realty does offer representation to both buyers and sellers. Therefore the potential exists for one agent to represent a buyer who wishes to purchase property listed with another agent in our company. If this occurs each agent will represent their own client, but JBS Realty and its managers will act as a dual agent.

This means the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and not take any actions that will favor one side over the other. JBS Realty will still supervise both agents to assure that their respective clients are being fully represented and will protect the parties' confidential information.

In the event that both the buyer and seller are represented by the same agent, that agent and JBS Realty will act as dual agents but only if both parties agree. As dual agents they will treat both parties honestly, prepare and present offers at the direction of the parties, and help the parties fulfill the terms of any contract. They will not, however, disclose any confidential information that would place one party at an advantage over the other or advocate or negotiate to the detriment of either party.

If dual agency occurs you will be asked to consent to it in writing. If you do not agree to your agent acting as a dual agent, you can ask that another agent in our company be assigned to represent you or you can seek representation from another brokerage.

As a buyer, you may choose to work with a listing agent on a property listed with JBS Realty. Provided that you have not already been working with this agent or working with any other agent under an Exclusive Agency Agreement, then you may choose to represent yourself. In that instance JBS Realty will represent the seller and you would represent your own best interests. Because the listing agent has a duty of full disclosure to the seller, you should not share any information with the listing agent that you would not want the seller to know.

WORKING WITH OTHER BROKERAGES

When JBS Realty lists property for sale it also cooperates with, and offers compensation to, other brokerages that represent buyers. JBS Realty does reserve the right, in some instances, to vary the compensation it offers to other brokerages. As a seller, you should understand that just because JBS Realty shares a fee with a brokerage representing the buyer, it does not mean that you will be represented by that brokerage. Instead that company will be looking out for the buyer and JBS Realty will be representing your interests. When acting as a buyer's agent, JBS Realty also accepts compensation offered by the listing broker. If the property is not listed with any broker, or the listing broker does not offer compensation, we will attempt to negotiate for a seller-paid fee.

FAIR HOUSING STATEMENT

Please note: We hope you find this information to be helpful to you as you begin your real estate transaction. Please ask questions if there is anything you do not understand.

DUAL AGENCY

Ohio law permits a real estate agent and brokerage to represent both the seller and buyer in a real estate transaction as long as this is disclosed to both parties and they both agree. This is known as dual agency. As a dual agent, a real estate agent and brokerage represent two clients whose interests are, or at times could be, different or adverse. For this reason, the dual agent(s) may not be able to advocate on behalf of the client to the same extent the agent may have if the agent represented only one client.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall:

- Treat both clients honestly;
- Disclose latent (not readily observable) material defects to the purchaser, if known by the agent(s) or brokerage;
- Provide information regarding lenders, inspectors and other professionals, if requested;
- Provide market information available from a property listing service or public records, if requested;
- Prepare and present all offers and counteroffers at the direction of the parties;
- Assist both parties in completing the steps necessary to fulfill the terms of any contract, if requested.

As a dual agent, the agent(s) and brokerage shall not:

- Disclose information that is confidential, or that would have an adverse effect on one party's position in the transaction, unless such disclosure is authorized by the client or required by law;
- Advocate or negotiate on behalf of either the buyer or seller;
- Suggest or recommend specific terms, including price, or disclose the terms or price a buyer is willing to offer or that a seller is willing to accept;
- Engage in conduct that is contrary to the instructions of either party and may not act in a biased manner on behalf of one party.

Compensation: Unless agreed otherwise, the brokerage will be compensated per the agency agreement.

Management Level Licensees: Generally, the principal broker and managers in a brokerage also represent the interests of any buyer or seller represented by an agent affiliated with that brokerage. Therefore, if both buyer and seller are represented by agents in the same brokerage, the principal broker and manager are dual agents. There are two exceptions to this. The first is where the principal broker or manager is personally representing one of the parties. The second is where the principal broker or manager is selling or buying his own real estate. These exceptions only apply if there is another principal broker or manager to supervise the other agent involved in the transaction.

Responsibilities of the Parties: The duties of the agent and brokerage in a real estate transaction do not relieve the buyer and seller from the responsibility to protect their own interests. The buyer and seller are advised to carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. The agent and brokerage are qualified to advise on real estate matters. IF LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE IS DESIRED, YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL.

Consent: By signing on the reverse side, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and are giving your voluntary, informed consent to the agency relationship disclosed. If you do not agree to the agent(s) and/or brokerage acting as a dual agent, you are not required to consent to this agreement and you may either request a separate agent in the brokerage to be appointed to represent your interests or you may terminate your agency relationship and obtain representation from another brokerage.

Any questions regarding the role or responsibilities of the brokerage or its agents should be directed to:

77 correct tax value of the property as of the date the title has been recorded and pay the current taxes due to the date
78 the title has been recorded. If the property being transferred is new construction and recently completed or in the 79 process of completion at the time the agreement was signed by the parties, the escrow agent is instructed to make
80 a good faith estimate of the taxes to be owed on the value of the improved property to the date the title has been
81 recorded and reserve sufficient funds in escrow from Seller's net proceeds to pay those taxes when they become 82 due and payable after the title has been recorded. The escrow agent is instructed to release the balance of the 83 funds on reserve to Seller once they receive notice from the local county auditor that the taxes on the land and 172 sex offender resides in the area of any property Buyer may purchase.

184 Seller shall pay all costs for the repair of any gas line leak found between the street and foundation at the time
185 of recording of title, or restoration of utilities, whichever is sooner. Seller agrees to comply with any and all local 186 governmental point of sale laws and/or ordinances. Seller will promptly provide Buyer with copies of any notices

188 applicable, Buyer and Seller have five (5) days after receipt by Buyer of all notices to agree in writing which party
189 will be responsible for the correction of any building code or health violation(s). If Buyer and Seller cannot agree in 190 writing, this Agreement can be declared null and void by either party. In that event Seller and Buyer agree to sign a
191 mutual release with instruction to the Broker on disbursement of the earnest money. (see line 227)
